

Powerful Women Know how to Take Good Care of their Money. They have Clarity, a Plan, and Support.

Our free seminar will empower you to be productive, supported, and clear about your money. This 90-minute session will provide you with tools and strategies you can use to shape the relationship with your money you would love to have.

Taking good care of your money can be complex, but navigating how to do it can be a piece of cake.

It's what we help you do.

Date: Friday, October 12, 2018

Time: 1:00 – 2:30pm

Place: 5750 Hidcote Dr., Lincoln, NE 68516

REGISTRATION LIMITED TO 15: RSVP SOON.

Speakers will be:

Life Coach Kris Thaller has been coaching since 2006. She helps busy professionals slow down, sharpen their focus and balance their everyday actions so they can accomplish what's truly important to them.

Attorney Jeanelle Lust has two decades of experience on advising women on using powers of attorney, business formations, pre-marital agreements and estate planning to protect themselves and their assets.

Jenna Vitosh, AAMS, is a Financial Advisor with Edward Jones with over 7 years of experience helping successful women achieve their financial goals.

You will learn:

- The Universal Journey We Are All On
- Two All Purpose Tools You Can Use to Make Wise Money Decisions
- A New Definition of Financial Success

Learn how to protect yourself and your assets:

- While Staying Single
- While Married
- Post-Marriage

Women face unique financial circumstances, so a strong financial strategy is vital. Here's an opportunity to ensure your financial strategy fits your lifestyle and needs by exploring five money questions critical for women.